

Take Me To The River

Female Welder (Dorothy) at work at Waterloo Bridge, 1944

Thu 22 – Sat 24 Sep 2016

FREE EVENT

Supported by Tideway

© Daily Herald Archive/National Media Museum/Science & Society Picture Library

LIGHT UP THE LADIES' BRIDGE

by Concrete History & Karen Livesey

For three nights and two days, as part of Totally Thames Festival, we will celebrate the little-known history of Waterloo Bridge (aka The Ladies' Bridge) and the female construction workers who rebuilt the bridge during the Second World War with epic projections, film shows and live music. Come join us in making history | Waterloo Bridge, South Bank side, SE1

THURSDAY 22 September | 1pm–2.30pm
THE LADIES' BRIDGE FILM SCREENING & PANEL DISCUSSION
BFI Southbank

THURSDAY 22 September–SATURDAY 24 September | 7.15pm–11pm
PROJECTIONS ON NATIONAL THEATRE TOWER

FRIDAY 23 September | 7.15pm–11pm
PROJECTIONS ON NATIONAL THEATRE TOWER & WATERLOO BRIDGE
with iyatraQuartet performance at 8pm and sounds from 9pm

SATURDAY 24 September | 6.30pm–11pm
PROJECTIONS ON NATIONAL THEATRE TOWER & WATERLOO BRIDGE
7.15pm–11pm. 8pm Join MJ Paranzinos' choirs. Sounds from 9pm
HUMAN CHAIN 6.30pm–7.30pm

To book free tickets visit:

<http://www.brownpapertickets.com/event/2627607>

to assemble at stone circle in front of National Theatre at 6pm to be led onto the bridge at 6.30pm. Join hands for photo call at 7.30pm

FRIDAY 23 September–SATURDAY 24 September | 10am–10pm
THE KINO VAN will be parked up screening THE LADIES' BRIDGE documentary and a rolling programme of short films from BFI, FILM LONDON, IET, WES and UNITE

www.theladiesbridge.co.uk

www.totallythames.org

 @theladiesbridge

